

Mere Christianity
Book 1, Chapter 1
Our Sense of Right and Wrong

Questions:

1. Lewis begins by citing people quarreling with each other. According to him, why is this significant?

2. What's the difference between what we now call the "laws of nature" and what Lewis refers to as the Law of Human Nature?

3. How do people today deny this Law? Can you give some examples?

4. Why can't a relativistic belief, such as this denial, be successfully sustained?

5. What examples can you offer of morals or values which all cultures and most people embrace?

6. What's the bad news (Lewis' "next point") about this Law of Human Nature?

7. How does all of this line up with the Bible?

8. Have you ever used this argument in a discussion with someone? What happened?
