

Mere Christianity
Book 1, Chapter 5
We Have Cause to Be Uneasy

Questions:

1. What is Lewis's answer to those who dismiss Christianity by saying (in today's parlance): "We've been there, done that, and must move forward"?

2. What can we discover on our own about the source of Moral Law?

3. How does this counter some people's belief in a benign, non-threatening God?

4. What is the "terrible fix" we find ourselves in?

5. According to Lewis, Christianity will not make sense to anyone until they realize....?

6. Passages to ponder: Isaiah 6:1-6; Hebrews 10:26-27; Matthew 5:4; 9:10-13; Romans 6:17-18; 2 Thessalonians 2:16-17

7. According to Colossians 3:12-14, what for Christians is a primary application of the truths covered in this chapter and lesson?

8. A final thought: "The Christian church is a society of sinners. It is the only society in the world, membership in which is based upon the single qualification that the candidate shall be unworthy of membership" (Charles Clayton Morrison; What Is Christianity; p. 211).
