

Mere Christianity
Book 2, Chapter 2
The Invasion

Questions:

1. Besides atheism, what other view is “too simple”? How can it be described?

2. What is this view’s core problem?

3. What in Christianity can be seen as unexpected or contrary to conventional wisdom?

4. According to Lewis, what other view besides Christianity faces the fact of evil?
Describe this view.

5. What is dualism’s fatal flaw?

6. How is evil dependent upon good and had to have come after good already existed?

7. How does this line up with biblical teaching (Gen. 3:6; 16:2; Lev. 10:1-2; 2 Sam. 6:5-7)?

8. Given all this, what is one way to define the world as it presently exists (Rom. 8:20-23; Eph. 2:1-2; 1 Jn. 5:19)?
