

Mere Christianity
Book 3, Chapter 11
Faith (#1)

Questions:

1. The word “faith” is used by Christians in two senses. What are they? What sense is primarily addressed in this chapter?

2. In the New Testament, the word “faith” is used 307 times. What are some of important (or favorite) biblical “faith” verses?

3. How is faith in this sense often misunderstood by both Christians and non-Christians alike?

4. How is Christian faith a virtue?

5. How do we “train the habit of faith,” as Lewis puts it?

6. What is the main thing we learn from trying to practice a virtue, such as humility and faith?

7. Why is Christ the only true expert on dealing with temptation (Heb. 4:15)?

8. What is “another discovery” you will make if you “stick with” your practice of Christian virtues?

9. What common scenario does Lewis use to illustrate this?

10. In conclusion, according to Lewis, what two discoveries do we need to make before God can really get down to work?
